COMMITTEES AND MEMBERS.

FOUNDED 1876; INCORPORATED 1878.

MUNSON-WILLIAMS MEMORIAL.

THE ONEIDA HISTORICAL SOCIETY was organized December 1, 1876, at an informal meeting held in the office of Hon. CHARLES W. HUTCHINSON, at which a committee consisting of JOHN F. SEYMOUR, ALEXANDER SEWARD and ROBERT S. WILLIAMS was appointed to prepare a constitution and by-laws, and to nominate a list of officers. At a subsequent meeting, held December 15, 1876, this committee submitted its report, which was adopted. The officers elected were the same as those elected in 1879, with the exception of Dr. M. M. BAGG, Recording Secretary, who resigned that office in January, 1878.

ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION.

We, the undersigned citizens of the United States, residing within the county of Oneida and State of New York, and being also citizens of the State of New York, of the age of twenty-one years and upwards, do hereby associate ourselves and form a corporation, pursuant to the provisions of the statutes of the State of New York, and particularly under Chapter 267 of the Laws of 1875, as amended by Chapter 53 of the Laws of 1876.

The name by which such corporation shall be known in law is "The Oneida Historical Society at Utica." Said corporation is formed for historical and literary purposes, and the particular objects and business thereof shall be the discovery, collection, preservation and publication of the history, historical records and data of and relating to the territory or districts of country formerly occupied or claimed by the Oneida and Mohawk tribes or nations of Indians; the collection and preservation of books, newspapers, pamphlets, maps, genealogies, portraits, paintings, relics, manuscripts, letters, journals, surveys, field-books and any and all other articles and materials which may establish or illustrate such history, or the growth and progress of population, wealth, education, agriculture, arts, science, manufactures, trade and commerce in said territory or districts.

The principal office and place of business of said society shall be in the City of Utica, in the County of Oneida.

The said corporation shall be managed by its President, three Vice-Presidents, a Recording Secretary, a Corresponding Secretary, a Treasurer, and five members of said society and who shall constitute its Board of Managers. The names of said Managers for the first year of the existence of said corporation are Horatio Seymour, President; Alexander Seward Charles W. Hutchinson, and Edward Huntington, Vice Presidents; S. N. Dexter North, Recording Secretary; Morven M. Jones, Corresponding Secretary; Robert S. Williams, Treasurer; and William J. Bacon, John F. Seymour, Daniel Batchelor, Richard U. Sherman, and S. G. Visscher, said managers; and Roscoe Conkling, Pomroy Jones, Luther Guiteau, Philo White, Daniel B. Goodwin, Charlemagne Tower, John Stryker, Ward Hunt, Ellis H. Roberts, Dewitt C. Grove, Francis Kernan, John H. Edmonds, Michael Moore, Alexander S. Johnson, Edward North, Othniel S. Williams, William D. Walcott, Daniel E. Wager, John P. Gray, John G. Crocker, and Theodore S. Faxon, constitute a Board of Councillors of said Society—the foregoing being all the officers of said society for the first year.

(Filed in the office of the Secretary of State November 16, 1878, and in the office of Oneida County Clerk November 21, 1878.)

CONSTITUTION,

AS REVISED AND AMENDED JANUARY 8TH, 1901.

ARTICLE I.

NAME.

The name or title of this society is and shall be known in law as "THE ONEIDA HISTORICAL SOCIETY AT UTICA."

ARTICLE II.

OBJECT.

The object of the society shall be as stated in its certificate of incorporation.

ARTICLE III.

SEAL.

The seal of this society shall be circular, shall contain the words "The Oneida Historical Society, Founded in 1876," and the following is an impression thereof:

ARTICLE IV.

MEMBERSHIP.

The members of this society shall be persons of full age, citizens of the United States.

There shall be life, resident, annual, corresponding and honorary members.

Any citizen of the United States of full age may become a life or resident member upon payment of the fee hereinafter prescribed.

Any person residing outside of Oneida County may become a corresponding or honorary member.

Clergymen, ministers of the gospel and teachers, where-soever they reside, and all other persons residing at a greater distance than five miles from the Munson-Williams Memorial may become annual members on the payment of the fee hereinafter prescribed.

Annual, corresponding and honorary members shall possess all the privileges of the society, except they shall have no voice or right to vote at the meetings of the society and shall have no right to participate in its management or control.

Any person may be proposed for membership at any regular meeting of the society, whereupon the matter of his admission to membership shall be referred to the committee on membership. No further action shall be taken on the subject at that meeting, and he shall only be balloted for on a favorable report of the committee, except by unanimous consent.

The membership of any person in this society and all his interest therein shall be determined by his death, his voluntary withdrawal therefrom, his failure to pay dues, or his expulsion, as provided by the by-laws.

ARTICLE V.

FEES AND DUES.

The admission fee for life membership is $50.00, to be paid by the person elected to such membership before he acquires any rights as a member. All fees received for life membership shall constitute part of the permanent fund of the society to be invested and kept invested, the income of which only shall be appropriated to the use of the society.

The admission fee for resident membership is $5.00, and for annual membership $2.00, to be paid by the person elected before he acquires any rights as a member.

The annual dues of resident members are $5.00, and of annual members $2.00, the admission fee to constitute the annual dues for the first year.

The annual dues shall be payable on the second Tuesday of January in each year, in advance. In case any member shall not pay his dues when due, the treasurer shall send to him by mail a written or printed notice, addressed to him at his last known place of residence, requesting the payment of said dues within sixty days. In the event of the failure of such member to pay his dues within said time, his case shall be reported by the treasurer to the society, and, thereupon, the society may declare said membership forfeited and drop the name of such member from the roll of membership, or take such other action in the premises as it may deem wise.

ARTICLE VI.

OFFICERS.

The officers of this society shall be a president, three vice-presidents, a recording secretary, a corresponding secretary, a librarian and a treasurer, and five other members of the society, all of whom shall be elected annually at the annual meeting of the society, by ballot, the persons so elected, except the librarian, to constitute the managers and the board of managers of said society and to hold their offices, respectively, for one year and until their successors shall be elected. The five other persons above mentioned shall be selected from the board of councillors, hereinafter mentioned, and shall constitute the executive committee.

No person shall hold the office of president or vice-president for more than two consecutive full terms.

In case of a vacancy in any of the above mentioned offices, the board of managers may elect any eligible person for the unexpired term.

ARTICLE VII.

BOARD OF COUNCILORS.

There shall be a board of twenty-six councilors to be composed of life or resident members, who shall hold their offices for life, or so long as they shall continue to be life or resident members. All vacancies in the board of councilors shall be filled at the next succeeding annual meeting of the society by a majority of ballots, but only such persons shall be elected to fill such vacancies as shall be nominated by the executive committee, and shall be residents of Oneida County.

ARTICLE VIII.

QUALIFICATIONS OF VOTERS AND OFFICERS.

None but life and resident members shall be eligible to office or qualified to vote.

ARTICLE IX.

MEETINGS.

The annual meeting shall be held on the second Tuesday of January in each year at the Munson-Williams Memorial.

Regular and special meetings shall be held as provided in the by-laws.

Meetings of the board of managers shall be held as provided in the by-laws.

ARTICLE X.

QUORUMS.

Seven members in attendance at any regularly called meeting of the society shall constitute a quorum.

A majority of the board of managers shall constitute a quorum.

Three members of the executive committee shall constitute a quorum.

ARTICLE XI.

DUTIES OF OFFICERS.

Managers.

The board of managers shall have the control and management of the affairs and funds of the society.

Said board of managers shall present at the annual meeting of the society a report, verified by the president and treasurer, or by a majority of the managers, showing the whole amount of real and personal property, owned by it, where located, and where and how invested, the amount and nature of the property acquired during the year immediately preceding the date of the report, and the manner of the acquisition; the amount applied, appropriated, or expended during the year immediately preceding such date, and the purposes, objects or persons to, or for which such applications, appropriations or expenditures have been made; and the names and places of residence of the persons who have been admitted to membership in the corporation during said year; which report shall be filed with the records of the society, and an abstract thereof entered in the minutes of the proceedings of such annual meeting.

President and Vice-Presidents.

The president shall preside at all meetings of the society, regulate its proceedings, and have a casting vote. He shall be chairman of the board of managers. Any one of the vice-presidents may discharge the duties of the president in his absence.

Recording Secretary.

The recording secretary shall have the custody of the constitution, by-laws and records of the society. He shall give due notice of all regular and special meetings, and keep a record of the proceedings of the same. He shall be secretary of the board of managers, and keep a record of its proceedings.

Corresponding Secretary.

The corresponding secretary shall have the custody of all letters and communications on the business of the society, and shall submit to the society all communications received by him as such secretary. He shall, under the direction of the society, prepare all communications to be addressed to others in the name of the society, and keep true copies of such as may be important.

Librarian.

The librarian, under the direction of the board of managers, shall have the custody of the library and cabinet, including all manuscripts, documents, coins, relics, pictures and maps, and shall prepare and continue a catalogue of the same. He shall arrange the collections of the society in a manner suitable for convenient reference and inspection. He shall keep a record of all donations to the society, and make a report of the same at each regular meeting, and shall prepare and read at each annual meeting a statement of the growth and condition of the library and collections of the society.

He shall acknowledge every gift that may be made to the library or cabinet by a certificate addressed to the donor.

He shall have the right to employ an assistant, with the consent and approval of the executive committee, at a salary fixed by the board of managers.

Treasurer.

The treasurer shall receive and keep all securities and moneys due and payable or belonging to the society. He shall keep the funds of the society on deposit to his credit as such treasurer, in some institution to be approved by the board of managers. He shall keep a true account of his receipts and disbursements, and render a statement thereof at the annual meeting of the society, or whenever called upon to do so by the society or the board of managers. He may also be required to give such bonds as the board of managers may direct.

ARTICLE XII.

DEBTS AND AUDIT.

No debt shall be incurred in the name of the society, for any purpose whatever, beyond the amount of its unappropriated funds in the hands of the treasurer at the time any expenditure may be authorized. Nor shall any officer incur any obligations in the name of the society without authority previously conferred by the board of managers. No bill shall be paid by the treasurer unless audited by the committee on audit.

ARTICLE XIII.

USE OF MUNSON-WILLIAMS MEMORIAL.

The building belonging to and occupied by the society known as the "Munson-Williams Memorial" shall be used for the purposes of the society only, except the hall may be used by such patriotic associations as shall have the consent of the board of managers.

ARTICLE XIV.

AMENDMENTS.

This constitution may be amended by a two-thirds vote of the members present at a regular meeting of the society, provided notice of any proposed amendment is given at the previous regular meeting.

BY-LAWS.

I.

MEETINGS.

The annual meeting of the society shall be held on the second Tuesday of January at 4 o'clock P. M.

Regular meetings of the society shall be held monthly on the second Tuesday of each month at 8 o'clock P. M.

Special Meetings may be called by the president, or any vice-president.

Meetings of the board of managers shall be held on the call of the president or any vice-president.

The recording secretary shall give notice through the press, or otherwise, of both stated and special meetings.

II.

COMMITTEES, THEIR APPOINTMENTS AND DUTIES.

At or before the next regular meeting after the annual election of officers, the president shall appoint from the life or resident members of the society the standing committees, to consist of three or more members, as designated in the following:

1. On Finance.
2. On Audit.
3. On Library and Exchanges.
4. On Donations and Collections.
5. On Property and Fixtures.

6. On Addresses.
7. On Publications of the Society.
8. On Natural History and Specimens.
9. On Biography, Necrology and Historical Material.
10. On Statistics.
11. On Membership.
12. On Monuments.
13. On Early Publications of Utica.
14. On Hall.
15. On Law.
16. On Entertainments.
17. On Portraits.
18. (The Executive Committee is elected as provided in the Constitution).

The president shall also appoint a committee of seven women, to be known as the committee on entertainments.

The executive committee shall perform the usual duties of such a committee and shall act for the society in an emergency when a meeting of the board of managers cannot be secured.

The president shall be ex-officio chairman of the committee on finance. It shall be the duty of such committee to supervise the books, accounts and reports of the treasurer, and the financial receipts and expenditures of the society; it shall also be its duty to consider and recommend all suitable measures to increase the revenues of the society, and promote economy in its expenditures. It shall also recommend to the society a proper investment of its funds.

The auditing committee shall audit all bills for a greater sum than $5.00 and approve all bills for any amount.

The committee on library and exchanges of which the librarian shall be chairman, shall have the general charge and supervision of the library, and of all propositions in regard to its use, increase and management; or in regard to the procurement, exchange, or other disposition of books, periodicals and pamphlets, or their binding and preservation. It shall supervise the cataloguing of the collections of the society, and shall take such steps, from time to time, as may be necessary to secure a proper accountability for said collections and library.

The committee on donations and collections shall have supervision of the discovery, solicitation and transportation of donations for the collections of the society; it shall make such recommendations to the society in regard to the procuring of historical materials, by purchase or otherwise, as shall seem to it desirable.

The committee on property and fixtures shall have the charge and supervision of the real estate of the society and its property, otherwise than its catalogued collections; shall keep the same in repair, and shall recommend such additions, from time to time, as the growth of the society shall render necessary.

The committee on addresses shall arrange for the delivery of papers and addresses on historical topics and investigation connected with the objects of the society, to be read at the regular meetings and shall recommend an orator to address the society at its annual meetings.

The committee on publications shall have the charge and supervision of all the publications of the society, in order that the same may be properly and correctly printed whenever directed by the society. It shall also recommend for publication by the society, such material as it may deem desirable.

The committee on natural history and specimens shall have the supervision of these departments of the society's collections, and shall make such recommendations to the society regarding these departments, as the needs of the cabinet may require.

The committee on Biography, Necrology and Historical Material shall have charge of the procuring of details and data respecting the history of Central New York, and the individuals prominent in that history; and it shall be the duty of its members to prepare and arrange these data in a manner suitable for preservation and reference.

The committee on statistics shall have the charge and supervision of the collection and arrangement of statistics of the manufactures, trade, commerce, agriculture and business of Utica and Central New York, and place them in proper shape for preservation and reference.

The committee on membership shall inquire into the qualifications of candidates proposed for members and promptly report thereon to the society; and it shall be its duty to labor to increase the membership, by inducing all proper persons to become members.

The committee on monuments shall visit and inspect the several public monuments in the territory contained within the original county of Tryon; shall take an interest in having said monuments properly cared for; shall have charge for the society of the matter of the placing of historical monuments in the said territory; and shall report its proceedings from time to time to the society.

The committee on early Utica Publications shall have general supervision over the matter of the early Utica publications.

The committee on hall shall have general supervision of the hall of the Munson-Williams Memorial, and shall see that the same is properly used and properly cared for.

The committee on law shall discharge such duties of a legal nature as shall be required of it by the society.

The committee on entertainments shall perform the usual duties of such committee.

III.

WITHDRAWAL OF MEMBERS, ETC.

Any member may voluntary withdraw from this society by filing with the corresponding secretary a written resignation, and upon payment of any dues owing by him.

Any member of this society may be expelled by the affirmative vote of two-thirds of all the members present at a regular meeting. No action shall be taken by this society for the expulsion of any one of its members unless written charges are preferred against him, and such member shall not be expelled without notice, and an opportunity to be heard.

IV.

ORDER OF BUSINESS.

At the regular meetings of the society, the following shall be the order of business:

1. Reading of the minutes of the previous meeting.
2. Acknowledgement of donations to the society.
3. Reports and communications from the officers of the society.
4. Reports from the standing committees.
5. Reports from special committees.
6. Election of members.
7. Miscellaneous business.
8. Reading of papers and delivery of addresses.

V.

AMENDMENTS, ETC.

Any of these by-laws may be suspended in case of a temporary emergency, by the unanimous vote of a meeting, duly organized. They may be amended from time to time, by a majority vote of the members present at a regular meeting, provided notice of the proposed amendment has been given at the previous regular meeting.

RULES.

1. No book, map, chart, manuscript, or any other article belonging to the library, or cabinet of the society and no moveable furniture or property of the society shall be taken from the Munson-Williams Memorial.

2. All books, maps, charts, manuscripts and other articles belonging to the society shall be plainly marked with the name of the society and with the names of the donors. They shall be numbered and entered correspondingly in the catalogue.

3. All books or other articles placed on deposit with the society shall be carefully labelled and preserved, and shall not be removed from the places where the same are kept without the written consent of the owners.

4. The printed books in the library of the society shall be accessible to all members under the supervision of the librarian, and its manuscript collections, at the discretion of the librarian.

5. No ink shall be used by any one in the library or cabinet, except the librarian or his assistant.

6. The Munson-Williams Memorial shall be open each day of the week, except Sunday from 11 A. M. to 1 P. M. and from 2 to 4 o'clock P. M.
